

ECFIN Structural Reforms Workshop "Inequality and Structural Reforms: Methodological concerns"

Tuesday 16th May 2017

- 08:30-08:45 Welcome coffee
- 08:45-08:55 Introduction: What to measure and how, methodological concerns
Mary Veronica Tovšak Pleterski (DG ECFIN)
- 08:55-11:00 Session I – Analysis of labour and product market reforms
Chair: Jan in't Veld (DG ECFIN)
- 09:00-09:30 A general equilibrium (LM and PM reforms) perspective to inequality
Jean-Olivier Hairault (PSE, Université Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne)
- 09:30-10:00 The effects of labour market reforms: an agent-based model approach
Giovanni Dosi (Laboratory of Economics and Management (L.E.M.), Sant'Anna School of Advanced Studies)
- 10:00-10:30 Empirical analysis of the distributional impact of structural reforms
Orsetta Causa and Mikkel Hermansen (OECD Economics Department) and Orsetta Causa (OECD Economics Department)
- 10:30-11:00 General discussion - introductory comments by Zsolt Darvas (Bruegel)
- 11:00-11:20 Coffee Break
- 11:20-13:20 Session II – Analysis of tax reforms
Chair: Salvador Barrios (JRC IPTS Seville)
- 11:25-11:55 Implications from panel data techniques
Andreas Peichl (Centre for European Economic Research (ZEW))
- 11:55-12:25 Synthetic Control Method: an empirical analysis of tax reforms
Daniel Waldenstrom (Paris School of Economics, CEPR and IZA)
- 12:25 -13:05 General discussion - introductory comments by Elvire Guillaud (Université Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne)
- 13:05-13:20 Conclusions
Mary Veronica Tovšak Pleterski (DG ECFIN)